Seniors' Living Village

Proudly owned and operated by D Y R S L

Welcome to the award-winning Oceangrove Seniors' Living Village, setting new benchmarks in Northern Beaches' seniors living. First opening in 2010, Oceangrove has been intelligently and considerably designed to make life easier.

The 76 architecturally designed apartments are ideal for active, discerning over-55s who are ready to downsize from their home without compromising their lifestyles.

The village was awarded the Best Seniors' Living Development in Australia by The Property Council of Australia in 2013, recognising the Village's record-breaking sales and state-of-the-art facilities.

Above all else you can be secure in the knowledge that Oceangrove is owned and operated by the award-winning Dee Why RSL – the name you have trusted for over 85 years.

Living Village

Unrivalled Lifestyle and Location

Oceangrove Village offers an unparalleled location that is just footsteps to Dee Why's town centre, B-Line buses, shopping, medical services, the beach and cafe lifestyle, as well as all the recreational activities that Dee Why is renowned for.

At the heart of Oceangrove are the stylish community spaces with tropical landscaped gardens and decked alfresco areas, lounges, library, gym, table tennis area and more. These provide fantastic extensions to your home, areas to relax and entertain with Residents, family and friends. The Oceangrove staff provide professional management and are trained to enhance the wellbeing of all Residents.

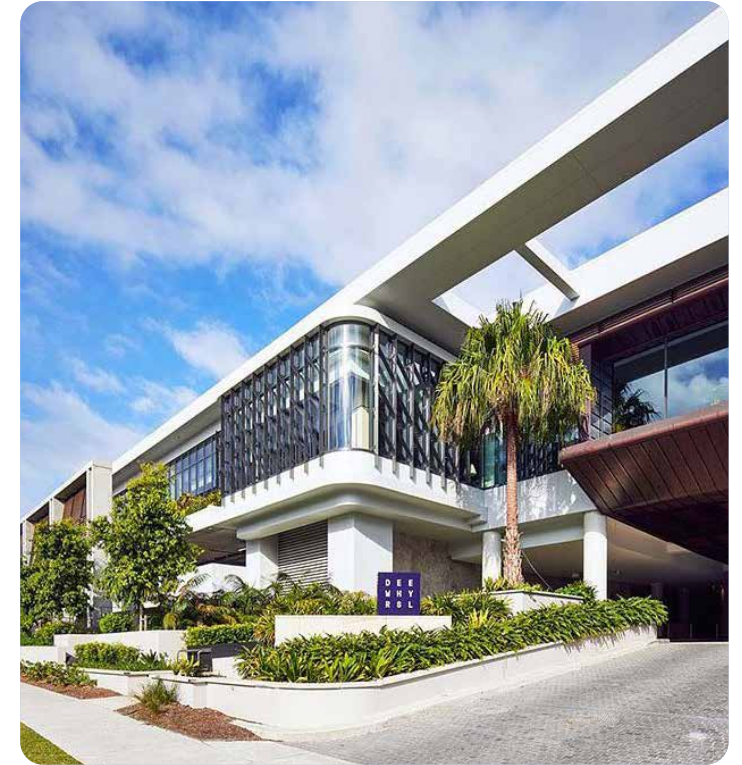

"I moved to Oceangrove in 2010 with my beloved cat, seeking a spacious, welcoming home. Living here has been a wonderful experience – close to doctors, shops, restaurants, and just a short walk to the beach, where I've enjoyed peaceful strolls and even the occasional dolphin or whale sighting.

The staff are incredibly kind and attentive, keeping everything in excellent condition and creating a warm, safe and cheerful environment.

I can truly say that moving to Oceangrove was one of the best decisions I've ever made."

J White, Resident since 2010

" Why have we lived in Oceangrove since 2010? It's simply because it's a superb place to live. The staff are friendly, helpful and knowledgeable and backed by a DYRSL management team who is always willing to listen to suggestions. Add in the facilities and the location, and what more could anyone want? WE LOVE IT!!!"

The Holthams, Residents since 2010

Dee Why RSL

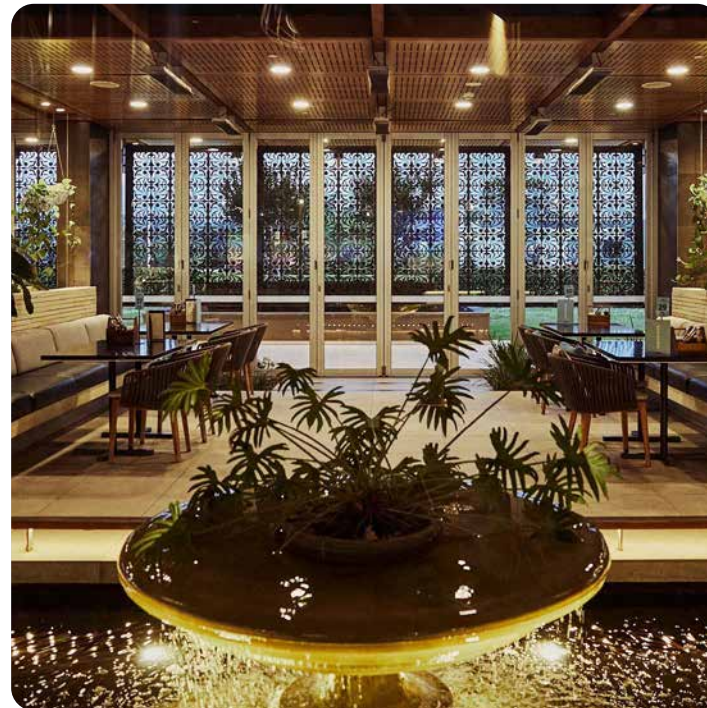

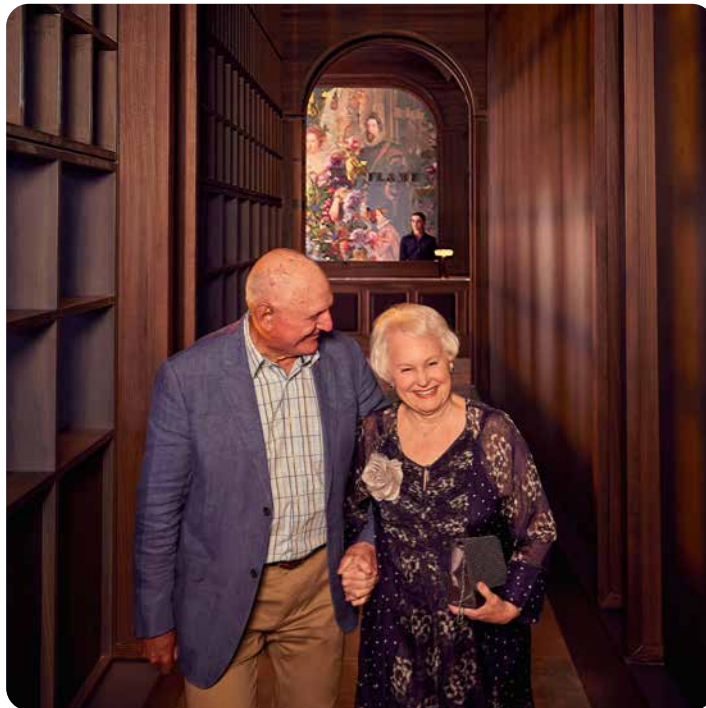

Owner and Operator

DYRSL is a vibrant entertainment hub at the heart of Sydney's Northern Beaches. For more than 85 years, we've been here for veterans, their families, and the broader community. Today, our popular venues include Courtyard, Battery House, and Flame. We're also known for our events ranging from major concerts to friendly bingo nights, our retirement community Oceangrove, our support of local charities, and our continuing tradition of honouring the fallen every day. Everything we do is driven by a spirit of service. We respect, support and celebrate our members, visitors, community and each other. You are always welcome — and always well looked after at DYRSL.

As a Resident of Oceangrove, you will also receive the added benefit of automatic DYRSL membership.

Dee Why RSL owes much of its continuing success to members' input and involvement to ensure that they keep up with the changing needs of the local community. It has grown from a small neighbourhood meeting place to the largest club on the Northern Beaches, with over 73,000 members. This has been underpinned by sound financial management, ensuring it will be here for generations to come.
